

Discover the art of good eating with Chef Jennie Lorenzo at Nautilus Yas Viceroy Abu Dhabi

10 October 2012: Chef de Cuisine, Jennie Lorenzo is entertaining guests with her new modern and evolving menu in Nautilus at Yas Viceroy Abu Dhabi, which re-opens today.

“The menu is something that is highly personal to me” comments Chef Jennie. “It is a reflection of my work, food memories inspired by my travels. I use subtle seasoning to enhance the natural flavour of every ingredient, thoughtfully chosen to reflect a particular sense of place and bringing a seasonal dimension to the menu.”

Dove tailing on the design of Nautilus and Yas Viceroy, Chef Jennie vibrantly integrates the innovative setting of the restaurant and maintains a clarity of its produce, preserving each ingredient's integrity and identity. Guests will experience a menu that will highlight the best produce of each season.

Arriving from San Francisco, Chef Jennie is bringing the mindset of cooking ethically by using sustainably sourced seafood and educating her team in the process. In essence, Jennie's approach is connecting the guests and the grower through her cuisine with frequent client interactions, giving them a glimpse of the story behind the dishes.

Heiner Werdeling, General Manager of Yas Viceroy Abu Dhabi, noted “We have given a definitive perspective to Nautilus with the creativity and vibrancy of Chef Jennie Lorenzo. Her experience and enthusiasm combined with Viceroy's style and service have fused together to bring a progressive dining journey through attentive and relaxed service".
