Live Music at Livello Lounge L'Ermitage Beverly Hills

November 1, 2012—Livello Lounge at L'Ermitage, long the sophisticated setting for cocktails in Beverly Hills, introduces live music from pianist Urie R.L. Norris every Friday evening from 6:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

In addition, Livello Lounge offers a Weekend Happy Hour on Fridays and Saturdays from 6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. with an exceptional bar menu from Livello restaurant, great wines and talented mixology.

With music on Friday evenings, the mood is lively and eclectic as Urie draws from a diverse song list ranging from Otis Redding to Duke Ellington. There's nothing like the sound of a grand piano and the 25 year-old UCLA grad makes the most of the beautiful instrument. Trained as a classical pianist, he counts contemporary, jazz and gospel music among his favorite forms.

On November 9, December 7 and 14, Urie will be joined by special guest Natasha Agrama, a singer, songwriter and multidisciplinary artist. Ms. Agrama is currently recording her debut record for Roxboro Entertainment Group, the jazz label of legendary musician Stanley Clarke. Joining Urie on November 16, 23 and 30 is singer Raquel Rodriguez. Inspired by songstresses like Etta James, Amy Winehouse and Adele, Ms. Rodriguez has distinguished herself as a rising star in the competitive L.A. music scene.

Understated, modern, discrete and spacious, Livello Lounge has the comfortable feel of a place well-accustomed to exemplary service. For more than 35 years the lounge has been meeting and exceeding expectations of the sophisticated international travelers who are the hotel's guests, as well as the discerning Beverly Hills residents who are its neighbors.
