SIGNATURE RITUALS

NORDIC INSPIRED RITUALS

Europe's only indigenous people, the Sami, date as far back as the Ice Age, nearly 9,600 years ago. Originally hunters and fishermen, the Sami took up reindeer herding in the 16th century. Although this is the most revered tradition in the Sami culture, handcrafts ('duodji') and language are also significant to the Sami way of life.

SAMI ZEN ENERGY RITUAL

120 MINUTES    $340

Traditional Joik chanting is the original Sami folk music and an important bearer of oral tradition. The Sami used warmed birch oil, indigenous stones and Joik music to protect the sacred connection of body and soul.

An introduction of Nordic music to open energy pathways in the body begins this unique ritual. Detoxify the body with a gentle exfoliation, followed by an herbal aromatherapy bath. The body is then massaged in concert to traditional Joik music with Arctic Birch Oil and rose porphyry stones. Each of the 'botestenaar' (healing stones) reflects energy, purpose, clearing and releasing. This ritual promotes a tranquility and balance of the body and soul never before experienced.

UTE INSPIRED RITUALS

Ute, which means 'land of the sun', were very respectful of nature and its resource's bountiful offerings which made for a fruitful existence. The environment as well as animals, water, and plants are a principle element to the spiritual power of its people.

UTE SUNDANCE RITUAL

120 MINUTES    $340

The Sundance ceremony is the most important spiritual ceremony in the Ute tradition and begins each year at mid-summer. As old as time, the tradition of 'tagu-wuni' or 'standing thirsty' is significant for the rejuvenation of spiritual power representing life and death; showing there is no true end to life.

Purifying, cleansing, and replenishing, this ritual begins with a hot salt soak; complimented with a nourishing, warming Shea butter body wrap blended with hints of vanilla, sandalwood, and grapefruit. While wrapped, relax with a hot oil scalp treatment, and then rejuvenate with a full body massage. And a deeply healing foot and hand treatment breathes new life into the body and soul.

BEAR DANCE RITUAL

120 MINUTES    $340

Traced back to the fifteenth century, the bear dance is an important Ute ceremony symbolizing the awakening of the bear from hibernation. Traditionally held in the spring at the sound of the first thunder, this ceremony honors the bear as a spiritual helper in regards to strength, wisdom, and renewal.

This ritual begins with a rich full body exfoliation scented with mandarin, nutmeg, and ginger to slough away tired, dry skin. Relax, restore, and hibernate in a warm, hydrating body wrap of Shea butter infused with essences of sandalwood, frankincense, and Siberian fir. Finish with a hot stone massage to awaken the mind, body, and spirit leaving you feeling completely renewed.
